DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in-

- (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or
- (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

2. Claims 1-2 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kobayashi et al. (6,294,305). The magnetic core provided so as to be related to at least a part of a magnetic field generation means by Kobayashi et al. teaches a base material having dispersed magnetic material (column 21, line 62 - column 22, line 5). The magnetic particle is at least one of iron powder, ferrite powder, and magnetite powder (column 9, line 47 - column 10, line 24). The magnetic core is related to at least part of the magnetic field generation means (Figure 2a).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 3-7 and 9-11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Claims 12-22 are allowed.
